

Point A

You and your neighbors share a dream for your community

project development

securing nonprofit status

traditional lending

grantwriting

government regulations

Point B

Your dream come true

Let Genesis walk the shortest distance with you

Since 1992, Genesis has worked with 131 affordable housing and community development projects across Maine, loaning $8.7 million and leveraging an additional $65 million. We offer support to groups at every step along the way.